General ❖ Notices

◆ National Conference of Christians and Jews
The National Conference of Christians and Jews sponsors a program titled "Seminarians Interacting" involving students from diverse Christian, Jewish, and Muslim traditions. Five students from PTS will be chosen to 1) participate this fall in a three-day visitation program at two seminaries in the Northeast and 2) gather for a four-day retreat on the issues of understanding your faith tradition in light of other religious communities (April 2–5, 1995). The topic this year is Scripture and interpretation.

A student registration fee of $40 is required. Only serious applicants willing to dedicate their time to the project should apply. If you are interested, submit a brief statement (two or three paragraphs) describing your background and interests in such an inter-religious and inter-denominational experience to Professor Dennis Olson via campus mail by Friday, September 23. Preference will be given to middlers and seniors.

For further information and a brochure, contact Professor Olson or Dean Carolyn Nicholson.

◆ Auditions!
The Second Shepherds Play, generally acknowledged to be the finest of all the English medieval mystery plays, will be performed this year in Mackay Auditorium, December 2 and 3. Produced by the Speech Communication in Ministry area of the Practical Theology Department, the play will be directed by Henry Robert Lanchester, visiting lecturer in speech. Members of the Seminary community are invited to participate through acting, understudying, and backstage responsibilities. Students who enroll in the course Drama as Practical Theology (SC 340) will receive three credits.

Auditions will be held 7:30–10:00 p.m., September 21, 22, 26, and 27, in Mackay Auditorium. Sign up at the speech office for a time slot. Scripts are available to be checked out. Come and try out for this delightful rustic farce celebrating Christmas. Enjoy the thrill of the theatre. No experience necessary.

◆ From the TBA...

Hours
Until Friday, September 23, the TBA will be open each weekday from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Student Accounts
Students will be allowed to charge purchases to their accounts activated at registration. Full-time students may charge up to $500 per semester and part-time students may charge up to $250 per semester.

These student accounts have nothing to do with book grants, allowances, stipends, or church funds that may have been granted for students. It is only a convenience that is provided to students. Charges incurred on student accounts will automatically be submitted to the bursar who will then bill you.

If for whatever reason you have not registered (i.e. nonpayment of fees or medical insurance), your account will not be activated. You must see the registrar to remedy the problem before your account can be activated. Nothing can be done to modify your registration status at the TBA.

Other Means of Payment
Cash, checks, and credit cards (Mastercard and Visa) are accepted at the TBA.

Returns
Take-backs will begin Monday, October 3, and must be completed by Friday, October 28. Textbooks must be in new condition and accompanied by a receipt. Store credit only will be issued.

◆ From the TBA...
Student Accounts
Students will be allowed to charge purchases to their accounts activated at registration. Full-time students may charge up to $500 per semester and part-time students may charge up to $250 per semester.

These student accounts have nothing to do with book grants, allowances, stipends, or church funds that may have been granted for students. It is only a convenience that is provided to students. Charges incurred on student accounts will automatically be submitted to the bursar who will then bill you.

If for whatever reason you have not registered (i.e. nonpayment of fees or medical insurance), your account will not be activated. You must see the registrar to remedy the problem before your account can be activated. Nothing can be done to modify your registration status at the TBA.

Other Means of Payment
Cash, checks, and credit cards (Mastercard and Visa) are accepted at the TBA.

Returns
Take-backs will begin Monday, October 3, and must be completed by Friday, October 28. Textbooks must be in new condition and accompanied by a receipt. Store credit only will be issued.

Registration for Mr. Frederick Buechner's November 8 seminar is full. Because of this we are unable to extend the usual invitation to the Seminary community. Only those previously registered may attend.

◆ Seminary Saturday
Field education students are invited to bring their church youth groups to this annual event, which this year will be held October 22 (9:00 a.m. to noon). This is a perfect opportunity to introduce your high-school-aged students to the Seminary, and to encourage a possible vocation among them by showing your students firsthand how seminarians live and work.

Separate programs are planned for teens and adults, and both groups will have the opportunity to tour the campus (including the soon-to-be dedicated Luce Library) and listen to the Princeton Seminary Touring Choir directed by Dr. David Weadon.

Also included in the day's events are a box lunch and tickets to the Princeton-Harvard football game. The cost is $3.99 for adults (age 19–64) and $1.99 for students (under 18) and adults (65 and over). Reservations are required.

Students are requested not to park on the quad after 8:00 a.m. on this date so that sufficient parking will be available for our guests.

Phone : 497-7890

General ❖ Notices

◆ Campus Parking during Luce Library Dedication
In conjunction with the Luce Library dedication on Tuesday, October 18, we would greatly appreciate commuters sharing rides and CRW residents using the shuttle bus to the maximum extent possible. Even though the Seminary is planning alternative parking locations for guests, parking will be at an absolute premium.

Thank you for your help in this matter.
Contact: David Poinsett
Phone : 497-7778

◆ Con Ed Seminars Available to Seminary Students
Students are admitted to continuing education events free with the approval of the seminar leader. Call for further information.
Contact: Ms. Doris Platt
Phone : 497-7990

Registration for Mr. Frederick Buechner's November 8 seminar is full. Because of this we are unable to extend the usual invitation to the Seminary community. Only those previously registered may attend.

Is Conflict Ever a Gift From God? Using the Guidelines for Presbyterians During Times of Disagreement
Monday, October 10 (9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.)
Leader: Richard L. Killmer, coordinator, Peacemaking Program, Presbyterian Church (USA)

Bio-Medical Ethics: Wrestling with Today's Complex Ethical Questions
Wednesday, October 12 (9:30 a.m.) to Thursday, October 13 (noon)
Leader: William F. May, Cary M. Maguire University Professor of Ethics, Southern Methodist University, Dallas, TX

◆ Seminary Saturday
Field education students are invited to bring their church youth groups to this annual event, held his year on October 22 (9:00 a.m. to noon). This is a perfect opportunity to introduce your high-school-aged students to the Seminary, and to encourage a possible vocation among them by showing your students firsthand how seminarians live and work.

Separate programs are planned for teens and adults, and both groups will have the opportunity to tour the campus (including the soon-to-be dedicated Luce Library) and listen to the Princeton Seminary Touring Choir directed by Dr. David Weadon.

Also included in the day's events are a box lunch and tickets to the Princeton-Harvard football game. The cost is $3.99 for adults (age 19–64) and $1.99 for students (under 18) and adults (65 and over). Reservations are required.

Students are requested not to park on the quad after 8:00 a.m. on this date so that sufficient parking will be available for our guests.
Contact: Marie Grasso
Phone : 497-7756

◆ SGA Has Openings
We have committed positions available for our public relations and campus environment committees. Or perhaps you would like to work on a campus television show, set up a Sunday night meals program with CRW, publish a newsletter, plan campus forums, or publish a campus-wide survey?
Contact: Eric Laverentz
Phone : 683-1784

Off-Campus ❖ Events

◆ Nassau Presbyterian Church Looking for Teaching Assistants
This is a team-teaching opportunity for the adventurous. It involves eight-week segments using the revised "Celebrate" curriculum for grades seven and eight. Join two experienced teachers from 9:15 to 10:15 a.m.

◆ Thursday, October 27
Old Testament Lecture
Stuart 6 4:30 p.m.
This annual lecture sponsored by the Biblical Department will be given by Professor Lawrence Stager, professor of archaeology and curator of the Semitic Museum at Harvard University. His topic will be "In the Footsteps of the Philistines: Recent Archaeological Discoveries and the Philistines."
A slide lecture will incorporate Stager's own excavations at Ashdod as well as archaeological work at other Philistine sites. The public is cordially invited.

◆ Thursday, October 27
Halloween Dinner and Celebration
Mackay Dining Hall 5:30 p.m.
What a night Tim has planned!

A buffet-style dinner will be followed by a ghoulishly good time. Remember when you bobbed for apples? Got dressed up for fun? Do it again — you're never too old.

For the kids Tim has planned a costume contest and a chance to bob for apples, both with prizes! The adults will not be left out, with chances to win prizes for their costumes, bobbing for apples, and pie eating. For those not on the board plan, the cost for this fun-filled evening is only $5 for adults and $2.50 for kids.

◆ Saturday, October 29
Women's Workshop
"Women of Fire and Mothers of Israel: Creative Tension in Women's Spirituality"
Alex Oratory 8:45 a.m.
Although there is no single "women's spirituality," there are a web of issues pertaining to women and spirituality. Borrowing the titles used for Deborah in Judges 4, Dr. Carol Lakey Hess will lead the women of this campus in a workshop which will look at women's needs for autonomy and connectedness, self-care and care of others, receiving and giving, in their spiritual life (relationship to God and others). We will seek to recover some ways in which women are breaking new ground in their understanding of spirituality. Classic and contemporary resources (including prayer, meditation, art, poetry, lament, and music) will be shared.

General ❖ Notices

◆ Campus Parking during Luce Library Dedication
In conjunction with the Luce Library dedication on Tuesday, October 18, we would greatly appreciate commuters sharing rides and CRW residents using the shuttle bus to the maximum extent possible. Even though the Seminary is planning alternative parking locations for guests, parking will be at an absolute premium.

Thank you for your help in this matter.

Phone : 497-7778

◆ Military Chaplains' Day
Military chaplains, chaplain candidates, and students interested in exploring the ministry to military personnel are invited to share their experiences and insights on Chaplains' Day, November 10. The guest of honor, Chaplain (COL) William L. Hufham, U.S. Army Chaplaincy Services Support Agency, Washington, D.C., will preach the homily at the morning worship service. President Thomas W. Gillespie and the Reverend Blant Ferguson, associate director of the Presbyterian Council for Chaplains and Military Personnel, will host this annual event. A luncheon will be held in the Private Dining Room at 12:30 p.m. Reservations are required for the luncheon, and the deadline for reserving a space is October 28.

Presbyterian endorsement agent, Blant Ferguson, will be available to meet with individual students. A sign-up sheet for appointments is posted in the field education office.

After lunch chaplains from all branches of the military services will be available to answer questions and discuss the opportunities for ministry within the military environment.

◆ Con Ed Seminars Available to Seminary Students
Students are admitted to continuing education events free with the approval of the seminar leader. Call for further information.
Contact: Ms. Doris Platt
Phone : 497-7990

Registration for Mr. Frederick Buechner's November 8 seminar is full. Because of this we are unable to extend the usual invitation to the Seminary community. Only those previously registered may attend.

Reclaiming Christmas
Monday, October 17 (9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.)
Leader: Brian K. Blount, assistant professor of New Testament, Princeton Theological Seminary

Seminar Date Change
Branches, Messengers, Victory Parties, and Small Towns: Old Testament Images for Preaching Advent Hope, originally scheduled for Tuesday, October 18, has been changed to Wednesday, October 19.

◆ German Table to Start Again
As in previous years, there will be a table reserved for those wishing to eat their lunches while conversing in, or listening to, German. Come join us each Thursday beginning October 27 at 12:15 p.m. in the far balcony section of the dining hall.
Contact: Christoph Schroeder
Phone : 924-7560

◆ Did You Sign Up to Receive The Presbyterian Outlook?
Presbyterian students who recently signed up for the Outlook on the sheet posted in the mailroom should go to the senior placement office and make sure the office has your name. We may have accidentally removed one sign-up sheet.

Off-Campus ❖ Events

◆ October 20 through October 23
Across the Jordan
Theatre Intime, Princeton University
This play by Merle Feld began in the 1989–1990 sabbatical year in Israel which Ms. Feld shared with her husband, Rabbi Eddie Feld. While there she helped to organize and facilitate dialogue groups for Israeli and Palestinian women on the West Bank and in Jerusalem.

The play speaks directly to those engaged in the effort to understand the dramatic changes now taking place in Israel and among the Palestinian peoples.

For times and ticket information, please call 258-4950.

◆ Alumnus/a-in-Residence Program
Monday, November 14, through Friday, November 18
The Reverend Joy J. Hoffman will be the Seminary's first alumna-in-residence for the 1994-95 academic year. Ms. Hoffman, a native of Johnstown, PA, received her B.A. in English from Lebanon Valley College and her M.A. in English from Michigan State University. With a special interest in teaching English to foreign students, she became a volunteer in mission in 1979-1980, working under the supervision of the Presbyterian Church in Taiwan. She taught English grammar and Bible in a Presbyterian student center in the industrial city of Kaohsiung.

She received her M.Div. from Princeton Seminary in 1985, where she developed a special love of church history. Her field education work included a summer as the chaplain at Shenandoah National Park. Later she completed two years of doctoral work at the University of Pittsburgh.

Ms. Hoffman was called as the associate pastor of the Pleasant Hills Community Presbyterian Church in Pittsburgh upon her PTS graduation. In 1988 she became the solo pastor of the Frankfort Presbyterian Church in Hookstown, PA, a small rural congregation. After nearly seven years in that position, she is now beginning a new ministry as pastor of the Logan Memorial Presbyterian Church in Audubon, NJ, effective November 1.

Ms. Hoffman will be available to speak with students while she is on campus. Please check with the Alumni/ae Office for further information.

Senior and Middler Prizes

The Seminary annually awards two Robert L. Maitland Prizes of $750 each, one for the best exegesis of a passage of the New Testament and one for the best essay on an assigned subject in English Bible. The assigned exegesis passage for 1994-95 is Acts 28:23-31: Paul's missionary speech concerning Jews and Gentiles. The English Bible topic is "Prophecy and Fulfillment."

The John Finley McLaren Prize in Biblical Theology ($300) is awarded annually for the best essay on an assigned subject in biblical theology. The subject for 1994-95 is "Human Faith and the Faithfulness of God."

Seniors or middlers may submit entries, which must be signed with an assumed name, accompanied by a sealed envelope containing the name of the author, and presented at the Office of the Dean of Academic Affairs on or before the last day of classes, April 28, 1995.

◆ Friday, December 2 and Saturday, December 3
The Second Shepherd's Play
Mackay Auditorium 8:00 p.m.
This English medieval mystery play is a rustic farce which culminates in a celebration of Christmas. The action centers on three shepherds out in the fields; Mak, who steals a sheep from them; and the antic efforts of Mak and his wife, Gill, to conceal the theft from the searching, irate shepherds. At last, an angel appears and a new birth transforms a chaotic world with a vision of harmony.

Michael Hegeman, touring choir manager, has written new music for the medieval songs traditionally performed as part of the play. The production will be staged by Henry Robert Lanchester, visiting lecturer in speech.

Tellabration 94!
Nassau Presbyterian Church 8:00 p.m.

"Tellabration! The Night of Storytelling for Grown-Ups" is a benefit performance for the AIDS Task Force of Princeton.

Storytelling is at the heart of human experience. Whether we spend our days harvesting corn, selling real estate, or ministering to a congregation, we can share our knowledge and experience through storytelling. In the process we gain a better understanding of our ourselves and our world.

Tickets are $10 for adults and $5 for students.

Upcoming ❖ Events

◆ Monday, November 28 through Friday, December 2
AIDS Awareness Week
World AIDS Day is Thursday, December 1, and in conjunction with this, the Women's Center is sponsoring a week of education, dialogue, and remembrance. Events for this week include:

At lunch each day there will be a literature table and wailing wall where you can write a message or be artistically creative to show concern for someone with HIV/AIDS or for someone who has died from AIDS.

Thursday, December 1 - World AIDS Day
10:00 a.m.
Chapel Service
As part of the regular chapel service, we will remember those who have died of AIDS. If you know someone who has died of AIDS and would like that person's name included in the service, please print the name(s) and age(s) on a piece of paper and send it to Carol Belles in the Chapel Office by Monday, November 28.

12:30 p.m.
"AIDS in the Church: From Condemnation to Pastoral Care"
Bring your lunch to the Main Lounge for a panel discussion about how we can minister to those suffering from HIV/AIDS and their families and friends. Group facilitators from the Hyacinth Foundation, caregivers for people with AIDS, and a person infected with HIV will moderate the panel. There will be a time for questions.

◆ Friday, December 2 and Saturday, December 3
The Second Shepherds Play
Mackay Auditorium 8:00 p.m.
This English medieval mystery play is a rustic farce which culminates in a celebration of Christmas. The action centers on three shepherds out in the fields; Mak, who steals a sheep from them; and the antic efforts of Mak and his wife, Gill, to conceal the theft from the searching, irate shepherds. At last, an angel appears and a new birth transforms a chaotic world with a vision of harmony.

Michael Hegeman, touring choir manager, has written new music for the medieval songs traditionally performed as part of the play. The production will be staged by Henry Robert Lanchester, visiting lecturer in speech.

◆ Scholarships Available to Study German in Germany
Princeton Seminary again has the opportunity to nominate two students for scholarships to study the German language in Germany. The scholarships include free tuition for a two-month language course (under the auspices of the Goethe Institute at one of its many locations), free lodging, breakfast and lunch on days when school is in session, plus an additional stipend for other needs.

These scholarships are made available through the Evangelical Church in Germany. Scholarship recipients must provide their own transportation and participate fully in the course, including the final examination. Applicants should have some knowledge of German, however introductory, and should intend to use a fuller facility with the language in further doctoral study in theology.

Interested students should submit a short statement of interest, previous study of German, and plans for further graduate study. This information should be submitted to Professor Paul Rorem through campus mail by December 5. Those interested in learning more about this program may consult previous recipients: Greg Faulkner, Gerry Bilkes, and Melody Knowles.

For CRW Residents

The Facilities Office is still reviewing options for the relocation of mailboxes at CRW. The idea of one centralized location is no longer under serious consideration. We are now looking at the concept of satellite units that would serve two to four buildings each. We understand there are concerns about where the mailboxes might be placed. We will keep CRW residents informed.

◆ Scholarships Available to Study German in Germany
Princeton Seminary again has the opportunity to nominate two students for scholarships to study the German language in Germany. The scholarships include free tuition for a two-month language course (under the auspices of the Goethe Institute at one of its many locations), free lodging, breakfast and lunch on days when school is in session, plus an additional stipend for other needs.

These scholarships are made available through the Evangelical Church in Germany. Scholarship recipients must provide their own transportation and participate fully in the course, including the final examination. Applicants should have some knowledge of German, however introductory, and should intend to use a fuller facility with the language in further doctoral study in theology.

Interested students should submit a short statement of interest, including information on their previous study of German and plans for further graduate study. This information should be submitted to Professor Paul Rorem through campus mail by December 5. Those interested in learning more about this program may consult previous recipients: Greg Faulkner, Gerry Bilkes, and Melody Knowles.

What Do Our Faith Communities Teach About the "Other"?
Monday, December 5 (9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.)
Leaders: Peter Laurence, former associate for interreligious programs with the National Conference; Ibrahim Abu-Rabí, professor of Islamic studies, Hartford Seminary; Adina Lewittes, student advisor at the Rabbinical School of the Jewish Theological Seminary; Carlton Elliott Smith, board member, AIDS National Interfaith Network; Matthew Smith, student coordinator for the Seminarians Interacting program at the National Conference; and Karen Wood, director of student life at Union Theological Seminary in New York and an adjunct faculty member at New York Theological Seminary.

This event brings together Jews, Muslims, and Christians in order to heighten religious sensitivity, deepen understanding, and broaden cooperation among faiths.

◆ Important Notice for Field Ed Students

Field ed students are reminded that mid-semester appraisals are due in the Field Education Office on December 16. A failing grade will be given for the appraisal unless a preapproved written extension has been granted. Students who did not receive an appraisal should pick one up at the Field Education Office.

◆ Important Recycling Notice
Recycling is the law and, as members of the Seminary community concerned with natural resource stewardship, we need to do all we can.

Please be diligent about separating newspapers, office paper (which includes junk mail, flyers, magazines, etc.) and cans and bottles from ordinary trash and garbage. Use the barrels and recycling containers in your building. The Seminary can be fined for non-compliance with this law.

◆ Friday, December 16
Holiday Concert
Westminster Choir College 8:00 p.m.
at Rider University (Bristol Chapel)
The Westminster Conservatory Chorale will perform in a holiday concert. Conducted by Frank Abrahams, the program will feature Benjamin Britten's Te Deum and works by Dietrich Buxtehude, Gustav Holst, Zoltan Kodaly, and Josquin des Pres, among others.
The Chorale is the high school honors choir of the Westminster Conservatory, the community music school of Westminster Choir College of Rider University. Members of the Chorale, who are students from central New Jersey and eastern Pennsylvania, study music of the highest quality from diverse musical and stylistic periods.

The public is invited to attend the Chorale's Christmas concert at no charge.
